STUDENTS

MC's Service-Learning Program offers opportunities in and out of the classroom for you to meet new people, learn new skills, and make a difference for a day, week, or semester at a time.

Sign up for a day of service, on-campus project, opportunity in the community, Alternative Break, or service-learning course today.

FIND PROJECTS & TRACK SERVICE-LEARNING HOURS

Record your service-learning hours with us to be eligible for MC's Spirit of Service Certificate (20-99 hours) & Medallion (100+ hours).

Sign up for projects & track service-learning hours at montgomerycollege.edu/givepulse

COMMUNITY ORGANIZATIONS

Are you a nonprofit, school, or government agency interested in partnering with the College?

Do you have an established volunteer program or need support for a particular project?

We can help connect you with service-learning courses, student clubs & organizations, and independent volunteers. Come to campus to table or register for one of our networking events and the Fall and Spring semester Volunteer Fairs to start recruiting volunteers.

FACULTY

The Service-Learning Coordinators have worked with faculty to support academic service-learning in courses collegewide, as well as in programs like Learning Communities, First-Year Experience, and Summer Bridge.

Academic Service-Learning is:

- A community engaged teaching method that addresses real community needs and includes reflection assignments that integrate service with learning outcomes
- A high impact approach linked to higher GPAs, increased student retention, and enhanced civic engagement
- A form of active learning that values critical thinking and problem solving
- A great hands-on experience for students in any discipline

We offer year-round support to faculty interested in developing a service-learning course, including help:

- Developing new courses or service-learning assignments for existing courses
- Creating related reflection activities and assessment materials specific to your course's learning outcomes

- Identifying service-learning partners
- Training and preparing students
- Helping students find appropriate sites
- Coordinating a class day of service
- Tracking student service hours
- Assessing outcomes

Submit a request for academic service-learning support at montgomerycollege.edu/servicelearning

LEARN MORE ABOUT SERVICE-LEARNING AT MC

Through academic and co-curricular service-learning and civic engagement, MC's Service-Learning Program engages students, faculty, and community organizations in meaningful, collaborative, and mutually beneficial projects.

We support Montgomery College's goal to foster community building, civic responsibility, and intercultural understanding by working to enrich the life of the community, serve as a place for neutral public dialog, and advance social justice.
