

YOU ARE INVITED!
WOMEN IN POLITICS: THE CANDIDACY OF PRUDENCIA
AYALA FOR PRESIDENT IN EL SALVADOR, 1930

THURSDAY, SEPT 27TH, 2018
1:00 P.M.
RESOURCE CENTER 204
MONTGOMERY COLLEGE, TP/SS

THIS EVENT FULFILLS THE MULTICULTURAL REQUIREMENT

Our Guest Speaker, Dr. Hector Lindo Fuentes is a Professor at Fordham University. He teaches Latin American History, the History of Education in Latin America, Latin America and the US, and many other courses.

Contact: evelyn.gonzalez-mills@montgomerycollege.edu

Born in 1885 to a humble family with indigenous roots

Ayala rose from being a Seamstress, to being the country's first female candidate for President

Women were not allowed to vote

Her writings supported unions
and women's rights

She founded the periodical *Redencion Femenina

SPONSORS: THE HUMANITIES, WOMEN'S AND GENDER STUDIES, GLOBAL HUMANITIES INSTITUTE, COUNSELING DEPARTMENT, LATINO STUDENT UNION,
LSU, AND CASA DE LA CULTURA EL SALVADOR