

The Love of Teaching: A Retreat for All Faculty

The Power of Stories to Engage Students in Their Learning

Featured Speaker:

Ms. Caralyn Bushey

University of Maryland (MEI)
and Montgomery College (WD&CE)

This retreat is designed to help faculty refresh, revitalize, renew, and re-engage through the sharing of personal stories related to teaching and learning.

At the conclusion of this workshop, participants will be able to:

- Reflect on what first inspired them to become educators.
- Explain how or in what ways stories can be used as a powerful teaching tool.
- Recount/Reuse a motivational story they heard from a colleague for motivating students.
- Refresh, revitalize, renew, and re-engage their love of teaching.

Earn Three Hours of Professional Development Credits

Continental breakfast provided!

Register through MC Learns.

For more information about this event, please contact Phil Bonner at

Philip.Bonner@montgomerycollege.edu or Gloria Barron at

Gloria.Barron@montgomerycollege.edu

<http://bit.ly/2BCCSkD>

This retreat is sponsored by the Office of E-Learning, Innovation and Teaching Excellence (ELITE) & The Institute for Part-Time Faculty Engagement and Support

Saturday
April 27, 2019
9:00 a.m. – 12:00
p.m.

51 Mannakee
Rockville Campus
Theater Arts Building (TA)

*Celebrate your love of teaching and the power of storytelling
for engaging students with your MC colleagues!*

