SOCIAL JUSTICE IN STATISTICS
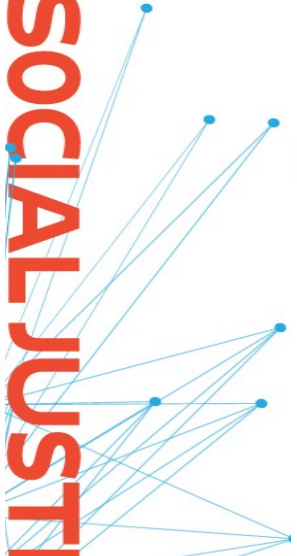

AND DATA VISUALIZATION

MATHEMATICS SEMINAR

November 3, 2017
2:00 – 3:00 PM
SC 125

Statistics employs shape, color, and size to distinguish multiple variables in plots or graphs. Humans are good at rapidly parsing visualizations to deduce information and better understand a story. Join Professor Saidi to delve into some effective visualizations for social justice topics.

No prior statistics knowledge necessary.