

BUILDING A CULTURE OF RESPECT:
Enriching Minds, Engaging Hearts, Creating Global Community

CELEBRATING NATIVE HERITAGE MONTH

In Commemorating Native American Heritage Month, Montgomery College's Global Nexus Program, Performing Arts Department community, Office of Advancement and Community Engagement, Counseling Department and Peace & Justice Studies present:

LECTURE

Mike Jock, Bear Clan, Mohawk elder of Akwesasne
Great Law of Peace of the Iroquois Confederacy
Basis of US Constitution and Democracy
Tuesday, November 7, 11 am, Music Recital Hall, 124
Reception to Follow

MC WORLD ARTS FESTIVAL WORKSHOPS Native Traditional & Contemporary Music

Featuring Mike Jock and Dawn Avery
Thursday, November 9
11 am, 1 pm, 3 pm, Music Rehearsal Hall, 124

MC WORLD ARTS FESTIVAL CONCERT Native American Music Traditional and Contemporary

Featuring Mike Jock and Dawn Avery
Thursday, November 9, 7:30 pm, Music Recital Hall, 126

The Great Law of Peace provides us with information on how to conduct ourselves as a people, how take care of the sacred mother earth, and how we interact with other Nations throughout Turtle Island.

Mike Jock is Bear Clan of the Kanienkeha, People of the Flint from Akwesasne, Mohawk Territory of the Eastern Door in the Iroquois Confederacy. He is one of the original members of the Akwesasne Notes printed between (1969-1996) and the White Roots of Peace.

Dawn Avery, wears the turtle clan, and is of Mohawk heritage. GRAMMY/ NAMA nominated musician, she sings and plays Native Downtempo music, employing Mohawk stories and languages.

The event is free and open to the public. It satisfies the Multicultural and diversity training requirement. Certificates of Attendance will be available at the event.

Questions about this event, email dawn.avery@montgomerycollege.edu
Questions about Global Nexus Program, email enas.elhanafi@montgomerycollege.edu