

"IN THEIR OWN VOICES..." Panel

"ARAB AMERICAN HERITAGE MONTH"

Staff, faculty and student panelists share their life experiences and cultivate intercultural understanding to open awareness in our international workplace and community.

A moderator will guide the conversation. Bring your curiosity and listening skills. Ask great questions. Support co-workers. Be willing to broaden your worldview!

Friday, April 3, 2009
9:00 am—11:00 am
40 West Gude Drive, Rooms 115 A & B

Register by PDS: <https://appserv.montgomerycollege.edu/signup/user/index.cfm>.

For more information on this event, please contact Laura White, OHR-CPOD, at 240-567-74297 or laura.white@montgomerycollege.edu

For information about Arab American Heritage Month Program at MC, please contact Enas Elhanafi, Coordinator at 240-567-1759 or enas.elhanafi@montgomerycollege.edu

Comments from previous attendees of "In Their Own Voices..." panels—

"I have sincerely enjoyed attending ALL of the 'In Their Own Voices...' panels this fall...What I have taken away from the panels thus far is a deepened respect for the dignity of ALL peoples."

"I enjoyed the 'African Heritage Month'...discussion group. Even though I lived in various countries in Africa, I learned much about specific family structures, relationships and attitudes. I recommend this series to all."

Attend two more Spring 2009 sessions, Friday mornings, 9-11 am

May 8	Asian-Pacific American Heritage Month
June 12	Caribbean American Heritage Month