Sexual Assault 101:
Preventing Violence Against Women

Presented by the D.C. Rape Crisis Center - Ms. Melinda Coles

Charlene Nunley Student Services Building, Room 302

Wednesday, April 23, 2014

1:30 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.

Our educational programs aim to debunk common myths and stereotypes about sexual violence to communicate certain key perspectives:

1. Sexual violence occurs frequently.
2. Sexual violence is perpetrated primarily by acquaintances, not strangers.
3. Sexual violence is disproportionately experienced by women and children.
4. Sexual violence is NEVER the survivor’s fault. Perpetrators hold all responsibility for their destruction to hurt another person.
