

GLOBAL NEXUS ~Promoting Global Awareness Through Diversity, Inclusion and Cross-Cultural Understanding

2017-2018 Global Nexus Theme:

Building a Culture of Respect:

Enriching Minds, Engaging Hearts, Creating Global Community

Join us to the upcoming Global Nexus meeting to learn more about the Program and to provide your valuable insights on upcoming activities.

Come and be a part of the planning session for the Global Nexus Program.

Bring your ideas and enthusiasm to a planning meeting on Friday, March 9, 2018
11:30 a.m.- 1p.m.

Rockville Campus, Science Center, Room SC400

Join us and be a part of the discussion!!!

We are inviting all departments to consider collaborating on activities sponsorship (it could be a talk, book discussion, art display, film screening, dialogue, cultural performance, poetry reading, or other type of activity that would contribute to a better understanding of current issues that impact our society, aiming to increasing equity, inclusion and cross-cultural understanding.

We need students who can help plan and volunteer for upcoming events. Have your students done a paper or class project issues for one of your classes, related to the program theme: "Building a Culture of Respect: Enriching Minds, Engaging Hearts, Creating Global Community."? Please encourage them to consider participating in a student panel as part of the Student and Alumni Colloquium (scholarships and certificates will be given to selected participants).

If you are unable to attend this meeting but would like to join the committee or co-sponsor an event or have an idea or question, please contact Enas Elhanafi at enas.elhanafi@montgomerycollege.edu

Your comments will be very valuable to the committee. Please share this information with your colleagues!
