COME TO A PRESENTATION ABOUT

Sponsored by the Montgomery College Humanities Area, the Department of World Language and Philosophy, and the Peace and Justice Studies Community.

Wednesday, April 25
11:00 - 12:30

Rockville Campus,
Theater Arts Building

Noted author, Professor Randall Amster, of Georgetown University, will speak about his newest book, Peace Ecology.

Wars and civil strife are increasingly connected to GLOBAL WARMING.

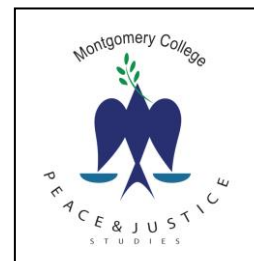

In his latest book, Professor Randall Amster considers the “destabilization of the planet’s capacity to support human habitation.” His warnings are dire, but solutions show hope.

We can replace our war economy with a “peace ecology.”

Montgomery County is GREEN, and Montgomery College plays a vital role!! Learn about the County’s decision in December to declare and address a “Climate Emergency.”
