

ELITE's Tapestry Institute for Cultural Competence FY20

Working with diverse students and colleagues at MC goes more smoothly when using intercultural knowledge and sensitivity, cross-cultural skills and mutual respect. Join Tapestry Institute, a learning community for practicing skills.

Tuesdays (and one Friday) from September 2019 through April 2020

Each full-day class is 9 a.m.-4:30 p.m., and half-day classes are 9 a.m.-noon. All classes are held at Mannakee, the Center for Training Excellence, 900 Hungerford Drive, Rockville.

Tapestry's exemplary facilitators bring diverse expertise and will have participants: saying "ouch," checking perceptions, creating a welcoming environment, engaging in dialogue, appreciating diverse historical narratives, and understanding globalization.

For more information, contact Laura White, Training & Development Specialist, ELITE, at 240-567-4297. Use MC LEARNS cohort programs to obtain an application form.

Deadline for application submission is Friday, September 13, 2019

For a list of workshops, view Tapestry Institute for Cultural Competence Cohort Flyer

MONTGOMERY COLLEGE