

National Distance Learning Week Celebration

November 2-6, 2026

Advancing AI, Global Education (OER), and Sustainable Future of Distance Education

MONDAY, NOVEMBER 2

Stop by our information tables to meet our staff members, enjoy some trivia fun, and grab free items as we kick off the NDLW celebration!

- 11:00 a.m.-12:00 p.m. | Takoma Park/Silver Spring Campus | Charlene R. Nunley Student Services Center (ST) Atrium
- 1:30-2:30 p.m. | Germantown Campus | Dr. DeRionne P. Pollard Student Affairs and Science Building Student Affairs and Science Building (SA) Atrium
- 3:30-4:30 p.m. | Rockville Campus | Long Nguyen and Kimmy Duong Student Services Center (SV) Atrium

Wednesday, November 4

Empowering Neurodivergent Learners

Presenter: Philip Bonner

11:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m.

Reimagining AI Use in the Classroom

Presenter: Dianne Cherry

1:00-2:00 p.m.

Exploring AI for Teaching and Learning: Using AI to Develop and Adapt Instructional Materials

Presenter: Ram Subedi

3:00-4:00 p.m.

Thursday, November 5

Off the Record: Lessons from Experimenting with AI in My Online Courses

Presenter: Eric Fiero

12:00-1:00 p.m.

Summer Fellowships on Digital Teaching and Open Education

Presenters: Dr. Shinta Hernandez & Akima Rogers

12:30-1:30 p.m.

Your Expertise, Your Course, Your Book: OER and AI in Action

Presenter: Dr. Christine Crefton

2:00-3:00 p.m.

Friday, November 6

Inclusion by Design Summit, Fall 2026

Access the NDLW Website for additional information and to register for workshops!
<https://www.montgomerycollege.edu/academics/mc-online/national-distance-learning-week.html>

